

FCLT

FCLT Edo-Tokyo International Workshop
Challenging the Urban Fabric

Workshop

Challenging the Urban Fabric

SCI-ARC

Opening Lecture

Lecturer

Hidenobu Jinnai

Date & Time

Monday, July 16, 2018

5:30pm-6:30pm

Venue

Hosei University, Ichigaya
Tamachi Building 5F
Multimedia Hall

Admission Free

This workshop and roundtable discussion will bring together students and professors from Hosei University, the Southern California Institute of Architecture (SCI-Arc), and Politecnico di Torino to examine the current issues and attractions of Tokyo and its future. Based on the fieldwork conducted by postgraduate students from these universities, workshop participants will propose architectural solutions for issues within the target zones: Ueno, Yanaka, Nezu, and Sendagi. The Ueno and Yanaka areas are located in the northern part of central Tokyo – “the cultural resources district” – which shapes the largest hub of Japan’s cultural resources from the last days of the Edo period until the present. The workshop and roundtable discussion will be a step toward the realization of FCLT’s aim for this academic year: to invite international urban researchers and to form research teams.

*FCLT focuses on the research on the future of Tokyo, one of the four research fields in the Center for Edo-Tokyo Studies.

Schedule

Saturday, July 21, 2018

Admission Free

Workshop Final Review

1pm – 3pm

Roundtable Discussion

3pm – 5pm

“Challenging the Urban Fabric”

Venue

HYPERMIX

1F 1-13-12 Monzennakacho, Koto-ku,
Tokyo 135-0048, Japan

Participating Teaching Staff (tentative)

SCI-Arc

Hernan Diaz Alonzo, John N. Bohn,
Ramiro Diaz-Granados, Casey Rehm
Politecnico di Torino

Claudia Cassatella, Nicola Russi,
Marco Santangelo, Mauro Volpiano
Hosei University

Hidenobu Jinnai, Koh Kitayama,

Makoto Shin Watanabe,

Taketo Shimohigoshi, Kazuko Akamatsu

Organized by Hosei University Center for Edo-Tokyo Studies, Future City Laboratory Tokyo (FCLT)*

Contact | Hosei University Center for Edo-Tokyo Studies

Tel: 03-3264-9682 / Fax: 03-3264-9884 / E-mail: edotokyo-jimu@ml.hosei.ac.jp

<http://edotokyo.hosei.ac.jp>

Private University Research Branding Project

EToS

江戸東京研究センター
Hosei University Research Center for Edo-Tokyo Studies